

EAST HARPTREE NEWSLETTER

CONGRATULATIONS

TO OUR STARS OF THE WEEK AND HEAD TEACHER AWARDS

The children have enjoyed lots of fun this week, in particular celebrating World Book Day. This year, we broadened the dressing up to a word as well as a book character, which enabled the children (and teachers!) to use their imagination in a different way. So many amazing costumes, thank you parents for supporting this during your already busy schedules.

Everyone got to enjoy the costumes during a 'whole school' parade.

Next week, the school is participating in the national 'Big Walk and Wheel' week. If possible, please keep those cars at home and walk, cycle or scooter to school. The school will be collecting data daily throughout the week.

Red Nose Day is on Friday 15th March - wear something red to school - voluntary £1 donation

This week in Squirrel Class, we've been doing some very interesting Geography learning about fold mountains.

In Maths, we've been focusing on perimeter and in English, completing our biography based on Paul Fleischman's book, the Matchbox Diary.

We also had a fantastic visit from a local illustrator, Keri Green who is now based at East Harptree Arts Hub. The class reading book is 'The Lion, Witch and the Wardrobe' and Keri supported the children to make a 'lift the flap' wardrobe to their own imaginary world. The children thoroughly enjoyed her visit and all hope she can come again.
