

12th March 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

It is with sadness that I write to inform you that I will be leaving my post as Collaboration Head Teacher at the end of this academic year. It has been a privilege to have been part of our Collaboration journey and such a joy to have led both of our small schools over the years. I feel very proud of our achievements in such a small amount of time.

I am confident that our Governing Body, supported by the LSP Trust, will appoint an excellent replacement as Collaboration Headteacher, and I know they will keep you informed throughout the process.

The past year has been a truly challenging time for us all, however I am committed to continuing my very best efforts to guide us through the next few terms and hopefully into some brighter days ahead. I will work closely with all members of our collaboration leadership team to ensure the transition is as smooth as possible.

The Collaboration of East Harptree & Ubley Primary Schools is very special. These two small schools are special places because of the pupils, staff and wider communities who show love and support for all. This is very unique and something I will truly miss. This ethos however will remain, and I look forward to hearing about continued successes long in to the future.

With very best wishes as always

Jane Bailey
