Poet Visit AF Harrold Tuesday 24th January

We were delighted to welcome A.F. Harrold to our school to speak to all the children in Fox, Squirrel and Otter classes. He is a poet, performer and children's author. He performed a variety of poems to the children that were funny, engaging and interactive, including "A poem about a dog having a bath", "Kennings", animal riddle poems and ones about the children's favourite food.

Mrs Banks said he was "inspiring", Rory M said "I liked his beard and he has a book about things you find in your beard", Dottie said he was "Hilarious" and Ewan said "I really liked the poet. He was really funny". Jasper C said he was "really entertaining."

Well's Literature Festival kindly sponsored this event so it was free to the school and he also went to visit our friends at Ubley Primary School in the afternoon.

Children can buy signed books through the school office and the PTA have kindly given the school a budget to buy books so we will have a few copies in the school library too!

Book of the Week

Mrs Banks says "this book will keep you smiling the whole way through. Grandad grows fire-breathing dragons in his garden. They turn out to be a lot more trouble than cucumbers! If you enjoy reading this one, then also look out for other books in the series!"
